ADULT FORUM

Meets TODAY at 9:30 AM, and possibly next Sunday, November 2, during the Sunday school hour. Facilitated by Sharon Baker. Old fashioned, unstructured play has taken a back seat to technology in today's society. Jonathon Haidt, author of The Anxious Generation, explores the rise in mental health issues among our children, adolescents and young adults in the 21st century. Are our children developing the social skills and emotional stability needed to succeed? Join our conversation as we delve into the challenges surrounding our youth today. We'll meet in the Associate Pastor's office.

BOOK DISCUSSION GROUP – "FALLING UPWARD"

Join us for a three-week exploration of Richard Rohr's book, Falling Upward: A Spirituality for the Two Halves of Life. This discussion series will guide us through Rohr's insights on spiritual maturity, the necessary losses that lead to growth, and the counterintuitive wisdom that sometimes we must fall to truly rise. Wednesdays, November 5, 12 and 19 at 7:00 PM - in person and via Zoom. Although it is recommended that you read the book it is not essential. Join us for the conversation! The book can be easily obtained through Amazon or through your favorite local bookseller.

RLCW TEA PARTY TODAY!

The RLCW are hosting a Tea Party TODAY, October 26 at 12PM in the fellowship hall. Bring your own tea cup or mug. Learn how to make a proper tea, while enjoying tea sandwiches, pastries, and of course, various teas! Play games and win prizes! Contact Ann Mauro at amauro51@gmail.com if you have any questions. YOUTH AND FAMILY

Sunday School: All classes meet TODAY Sunday, October 26, at 9:30 AM.

Make a Card for Faith Kitchen: Each month the 6th-HS students make bagged lunches for our friends at Faith Kitchen. In addition to a sandwich and snacks we include a card. We invite you to make a card to add to the lunches. Supplies are on the table outside the nursery. Simply place the finished cards in the labeled white box. Thank you in advance!

Dine to Donate: November 15 – Panera Bread in Roxbury, 4-8:00 PM. Panera will donate a portion of their proceeds to our youth groups when you present a flyer from Redeemer! Look for the flyer as the date draws near.

JOY EXPLOSION/RIVER'S BEGINNING

Welcome all K-5th graders who want to sing with Joy Explosion! We rehearse each Sunday at 10:15 in the choir loft, right after Sunday school. We would also like to bring back River's Beginning to accompany River's End on a couple of songs each week. All interested 6th-8th graders contact cynthiafeeney@gmail.com.

BOOK GROUP

We have selected Gather by Kenneth M. Cadow as our next read. Copies are available at local libraries. We will meet on Monday, November 3 at 7:00 PM at Carol Kitchin's home for discussion. All are welcome!

FOR ALL THE SAINTS

Sunday, November 2, 2025 is All Saints Sunday. On that day we celebrate the victory won for all the faithful dead, even as we grieve those faithful ones we have known and loved and who have gone before us to live with God. To honor them, we invite you to bring framed pictures of loved ones you wish to be part of our "beloved communion of saints." Their images will be around the altar for All Saints Sunday. Pictures may be left at the church until Friday, October 31.

SOCIAL MINISTRY LUNCHEON

Social Ministry Conversation, continued. All those interested in how Redeemer can best use our energy and resources to be of service in our community are welcome to join us for lunch on Sunday, November 2nd, at 12 PM. We will follow up on ideas previously discussed and continue to imagine what might be.

MEN'S BREAKFAST: SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 8:00 AM

Everyone needs a hobby; did you ever wonder what Pr. Tom's hobby is? (Hint: it involves hiking in the woods, stringing wires in trees, and using Morse Code.) A friend refers to it as "the most useless hobby ever." Join us for a delicious breakfast and Pr. Tom's presentation on this rather ridiculous pastime. As always, despite the title, all genders welcome!
